FREE Forex Trading Guide for Beginner Traders

When I started trading I felt overwhelmed because of all the information available on the Internet, I didn't know which one was credible and which one to ignore. Well, I've done the hard work for you and cut off everything that isn't useful, and only include information that will actually help you better understand the Forex market. Here we go:

- 1. Print the Free Forex trading guide for Beginner Traders (Yes, print it down).
- 2. Open a FREE demo account and download a FREE charting package. Get familiar with it, open your demo account with MetaTrader 4, it's the most popular charting package and it's pretty easy to use. Open a demo account and charting here: <http://clk.atdmt.com/FXM/go/331877443/direct/01/>
- 3. Read the Forex Course for beginner traders. At this course you will learn everything about the basics, technical and fundamental analysis and more. You can access the course from this link: <http://www.straightforex.com/courses/course/view.php?id=2>
 - 3.1 Take the tests of the course. To access the tests you need to register first. Register here: <http://www.straightforex.com/courses/login/signup.php>
- 4. Read the Forex Course for advanced traders. At this course you will go through advanced topics such as risk and trade management, position sizing and more. Access the course here: <http://www.straightforex.com/advanced-course/course/view.php?id=8>
 - 4.1 Take the quizzes of the course. To access the quizzes you need to register first. Register here: <http://www.straightforex.com/advanced-course/login/signup.php>
- 5. Develop a Trading System. You need to develop a system that fits your trading style, risk profile, trade personality, etc. You can combine the technical indicators, candlesticks, and other tools reviewed at both courses. You need to have simple and concrete rules.
 - 5.1 Demo trade your system. Using your demo account, test your system, it's important to make sure you trade consistently on demo before going live.
- 6. Request a FREE one-on-one coaching session. I can help you develop a system from scratch or increase the profitability of your current system. You can also address other issues regarding Forex trading: <http://www.straightforex.com/free-coaching-sessions.html>

- ❑ 7. Visit the FREE education Section. You'll find plenty of free resources that will help you trade better: Forex analysis and forecasts, live webinars, books reviews, Forex tools, Forex forum, and more: <http://www.straightforex.com/free-forex-education.html>

- ❑ 8. Open a real account. Once you demoed your system and got consistent results, you'll be ready to trade live, be sure you get consistent results on your demo account first. Open a real account here: <http://clk.atdmt.com/FXM/go/331877441/direct/01/>

- ❑ 9. Read these articles. Some of these articles will change the way you see and approach the market, they are definitely a must if you want to trade successfully:

Now that you have completed the guide, I want you to do two things:

Request a FREE one-on-one coaching session - You should have a few questions and I can help you find the answers. I can even help you get started with a broker, etc.

Join my facebook page - If you are looking for trading insight, or have questions about moving your stop loss levels, when to get out of a trade, what indicators to use, etc. Just post your question on my facebook page and I'd be happy to answer it.
